Scholars’ Mine—Nurturing the Creation of Knowledge

Scholars’ Mine is the institutional repository for the Missouri University of Science and Technology. Scholars’ Mine provides access to the digital scholarly and cultural resources created by the university community. This includes faculty papers, departmental publications, conference proceedings, graduate student works, and other scholarly material, as well as campus cultural and historical works.

The vision for Scholars’ Mine is to be an active participant in the creation of new knowledge through integration with research and scholarship activities and to create and support communities of researchers and scholars.
