The Center for Advancing Faculty Excellence \(CAFE\) will host an early career faculty forum about raising the visibility of your research and scholarship 4-5 p.m. Wednesday, April 4, in Room 204 Curtis Laws Wilson Library.

Andrew Careaga, chief marketing and communications officer, and Dr. Kathleen Sheppard, associate professor of history and political science, will discuss marketing and communications resources to help early career faculty spread the news about their research. All untenured tenure-track, and assistant teaching and research faculty are invited.
