ENERGY CRISIS - THE ROLE OF GOVERNMENT

Mrs. Lenore Loeb
(Moderator)
Energy Chairman
League of Women Voters
State of Missouri

This session was a panel discussion. The purpose of this session was to provide a forum for discussion of energy policies and programs at all levels of government. The role of the citizen was emphasized. Missouri State Legislators, Public Service Commission members and staff, Department of Natural Resources personnel and local government officials were invited to attend and participate in a resource capacity. Members of citizen groups in addition to the League of Women Voters, other conference attendees and the audience at large were encouraged to interact with panelists and resource personnel during the discussion period. Energy legislation, regulatory actions and programs and implementation at all levels of government were addressed. The Missouri State Energy Conservation Plan and the role of the citizen in bringing the various program measures to fruition were emphasized.

A tape was made on the Panel Discussion. Proceedings of the session is available on tape from the League of Women Voters, 2138 Woodson Road, St. Louis, Missouri 63114.

Panelists Include:

- Mr. Todd Davis, Energy Program, Department of Natural Resources
- Dr. J. Lisle Reed, Acting Deputy Assistant Administrator, Energy Resource Development, Federal Energy Administration
- Mr. James L. Russell, Missouri Representative, 6th District
- Mr. Lester A. Liebmann, Public Transportation Coordinator, St. Louis County

Dean James Halligan, Dean of UMR's School of Engineering and Master of Ceremonies for the Conference Banquet.
