ROLLA SUMMER SESSION, UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

VOL. X

Annual Picnic Held at Cool Brook Pool

The most important entertainment feature of the Rolla Summer Session was held last Thursday afternoon at Cool Brook.

About four o'clock, students and faculty members gathered in front of Norwood Hall and loaded themselves into the waiting cars which were so graciously offered. By four-thirty the greater part of the student body was plunging and splashing in the cool water. With only slight observations one would conclude that the students were having the time of their lives. Plain and fancy swimming, diving, and splashing were exhibited. The sideline will agree that the splashing was in no manner plain. Dr. Barley said that the splashers surely must have enjoyed filling his shoes with water. Many of the less adventurous boys and girls enjoyed themselves in the shallow water by playing "keep away" and by polishing the copper covering of the slide board.

After an hour and a half of fun in the pool, a familiar call was heard. It sounded to us boarding house inmates like "Come to your beans." But beans it was not. It was line up for a treat. Our kind-hearted profs dished out all the fine picnic food we could possibly stuff down our hungry selves. There were rolls and rolls, hot dogs and dogs hot, ice cream to let, and splendid ice cold Rolla drinking water. The food was certainly relished or at least that was to be supposed, for

Ozarker Publishes Careers of Seniors

Miss Mary Lee Johnson of Rolla is a graduate of Rolla High School. She has attended Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Missouri School of Mines at Rolla, and Rolla Summer Session. Miss Johnson received a B. S. degree in Science from Missouri School of Mines last spring. This summer she will receive a B. S. degree in Education from Rolla Summer Session of the University of Missouri, with a major in science and a minor in mathematics.

Welcome Alumni

MRS. SEASE ENTERTAINS OZARKER STAFF MEMBERS

The staff members were entertained last Wednesday evening by Mrs. Sease, the faculty adviser, at a Rainbow Party at her home. The decorations and the menu were beautifully arranged to carry out the rainbow idea. After a seven o'clock dinner, the evening was very pleasantly passed in informal fashion, in music and conversation. Mrs. Matlock delighted the guests with an amusing and clever reading, "The Quest of the Riband," by Arthur Guiterman. Sam Bayless entertained with his banjo and some songs.

The guests included Bill Bunge, the editor-in-chief, his staff, and a few friends.

Officers Elected by Forum for 1935

The last regular meeting of the Forum was held in Norwood Hall on Monday evening, July 30. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Katherine Sharp; vice-president, Helen Kipping; secretary, Oney Huvendick; treasurer, Mabel Winkler; sponsors, Dr. McNeil and Professor Huitt.

It was suggested that since the Forum was very successful during the past year under the guidance of one person, it should be even more successful in the future under the direction of two sponsors who are interested in its welfare.

The Forum takes this opportunity to invite the students to return to R. S. S. and give your membership to the organization next summer.

THANKS, ROLLA!

The members of the Ozarker staff wish to thank the advertisers for their splendid cooperation in making the 1934 paper a success financially.

Julius E. G'ebler,
Business Manager.

Seniors Guests of Dr. Barley, Tuesday

Dr. J. W. Barley, Director in Charge of the University of Missouri Rolla Summer Session, entertained the members of the graduating class at a seven o'clock dinner Tuesday evening at the Hotel Edwin Long.

Dr. Barley has made this an annual event complimenting the seniors. Other guests of this dinner were the four faculty members who have been associated with the Summer School for eleven summers, since its inception in 1924: Professors W. T. Schrenk, L. E. Garrett, F. E. Dennie and Nadine M. Sease. Dr. Roscoe V. Cramer, Assistant Dean of the School of Education, was also an honored guest.

Students Assist in Service at Hospital

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 a group from the Summer Session assisted Dr. Woodman in the regular Sunday School service at the Trachoma Hospital. The program consisted of group singing, followed by special numbers by the Triple Trio, the Women's Quartet, and the Men's Quintet; a talk on the Sunday School lesson by Mr. Huitt and prayers by Dr. Woodman.

Those who attended the service besides participants and patients of the hospital were Mrs. J. T. Wilson of Steelville, Miss Edith Paasch and Miss Mildred Hohenstreet of Bland, and Mrs. Emery Sutterfield of the Rolla Summer Session.

Tea Given Sunday for R.S.S. Faculty

The members of the faculty and their wives were entertained with a tea, Sunday afternoon at the Triangle House by Mrs. Ruth Wright, Laura Bouldin and Katherine Sharp. Throughout the afternoon music was furnished by Flora Ellen Hill, Margaret Mann, the Girls' Triple Trio and Quartet and accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Tello.

Mrs. Barley, assisted by Mary Bingham and Anna Jane Harrison, presided in the dining room where dainty refreshments were served.

EDITORIAL

In the last week of our Summer Session this year we shall again see the passing from our midst of many tried and true students; students who have made a name as leaders in our classrooms and in extra-curricular activities. We are, to a certain degree, glad of this passing. We feel that these students who have made the Rolla Summer Session a live institution will continue to boost it by showing the world the type of teacher produced by the Rolla Summer Session. We are glad also for the challenge to our abilities that we see in the vacancies they are leaving in our school life, vacancies which call to outstanding students to fill. We have these students.

The members of the Ozarker staff this year have worked hard to make the Ozarker truly representative of the student body. We have printed only such material as we considered of interest to the student body as a whole, and we now thank those of you who, realizing that the Ozarker was not a staff paper but a school paper, have helped us to fill our columns with interesting news. We hope that reading the Ozarker has contributed to the pleasure you have had in Rolla this summer. We hope and believe that next year's Ozarker staff will enjoy their task as much as we have enjoyed it this summer, and since Ozarker staffs have represented and will continue to represent a cross-section of the student body, we know that the Ozarker will be a success next year.

We, this Ozarker staff, will consider ourselves amply repaid if in reflective moments we can hear with no twinge of conscience the "Well done" of our fellow students.

Harmony and cooperation are essential to the life of any institution. The summer session has been built up by continuous and untiring effort on the part of the Director in Charge, the faculty, and former students of the summer session. For the most part, the attitude of the present session has been one of friendly pulling together. It is unfortunate that a few individuals, for want of a more worthy ambition, have caused factional enmity to spring up between groups on the campus. During the last week these factions have indulged in a series of "wrinkling" that has caused a great deal of unfavorable comment from the student body. The antics referred to as "wrinkling" are thought to be too childish to become school teachers. Some one has ventured to say that there is not a teacher in the summer session that would not shake the shoes off his students if he caught them holding a small boy and rubbing his stomach with a handful of gravel. It is a well-established fact that ten fellows can pummel one fellow with considerable ease, especially when the ten are cowardly enough to attack from the rear. Where's the sportsmanship in such child'splay? We've heard enough to believe that the practice is entirely too unpopular to be forced in a democratic institution.

Ours is a plea for harmony, for working together, for sportsmanship, for making the summer session so attractive that the teachers of south central Missouri will not seek elsewhere for their summer's work. We believe that by honest effort on the part of the students that are now in school here the enrollment of the 1935 summer session can be greatly increased. Let's each of us encourage at least one student to come to Rolla next summer. A worthy ambition, isn't it? Let's do it.

J. A. SPILMAN*THE KEY

Never has William Powell appeared in a more magnetic role than as the dashing army officer in "The Key," a film in which Warner Bros. have managed to combine a most unusual romance with thrilling action, the love interest being set in the turbulent days of the Irish revolt of the last decade when Dublin was the seething battleground of the Sinn Feiners and the British authorities. The star has brilliant support in his leading lady, Edna Best, star of London and New York stages, and Colin Clive, the "other side of the triangle."

HE WAS HER MAN

"He Was Her Man" is the highly dramatic story of a thoroughly unscrupulous underworld character who has a way with the women. The role is enacted by James Cagney, with Joan Blondell taking the part of a woman of the streets who is about to put her past behind her and marry a Portuguese fisherman when she becomes infatuated with the rogue of the magnetic personality. Victor Jory has the role of the fisherman lover.

THE CIRCUS CLOWN

With all its color, its action, its blare and heraldry, the circus—both as seen in the ring and as lived behind the tent drops—will be shown in "The Circus Clown," with Joe E. Brown as the star. Brown was a circus acrobat as a boy, so he is "in his element." Included in the cast are Patricia Ellis, Donald Dilloway, Dorothy Burgess, other film actors and the entire cast of the Al G. Barnes circus.

NO GREATER GLORY

To theatregoers who are fed up on sex triangles, gang wars, racing thrillers and other threadbare movie plots, it should be welcome news that "No Greater Glory" is soon to be shown at the Rollamo. The screen story is based on Ferenc Molnar's novel, "Paul Street Boys," and deals with a cross-section of life, which reflects the author's intimacy with the part of Budapest, Hungary, that is its setting. The excellent cast includes Lois Wilson, Ralph Morgan, George Breakston, Frankie Darro, Jackie Searl, Jimmy Butler and Tom Ricketts.

SHOOT THE WORKS

The inimitable Jack Oakie with his "Missouri" accent and wise-cracks, and Ben Bernie's music are the principal features in the hilariously funny "Shoot the Works." Oakie is pictured as a glib-tongued promoter of freak shows and flagpole sitting championships, with side excursions into twilight romances. Sterling performances are given by Alison Skipworth, as Oakie's faithful but unofficial mother, and William Frawley, the gossiping columnist. Hysterically funny is Roscoe Karns, flagpole sitter.

OUR AGONY COLUMN

Dear Miss Fareflax:

School will be over for the summer in just a few more days now, and we will all be going home. She will go one direction, and I will go in another. No telling when I will ever see her again. But I must tell her what is in my mind, yet I don't know just what would be the best way. Won't you help me to find the best way to tell her just what I want to, no more and no less?

Doubtful.

Dear Doubtful:

You may say it with flowers,
And say it with song;
You may say it with wordage
Through all the night long.

You may say it with candy,
Or tickets, or dough;
You may say it with fine foods,
Or cars in a row.

You may say it with music,
Or grand coats of mink;
But always remember—

Teachers Win from Blue Springs, 7 to 6

What was that crack heard at the banquet about the 1934 RSS team? All summer the boys who do or die of the honors of the summer school have been saying "give us a crowd and we'll play for 'em." Last Saturday they had a chance to prove their metal by playing before a large homecoming crowd at Cuba.

It is not often that two foreign foes tackle each other before a neutral homecoming crowd and the boys from the institution did themselves proud. 'Twas a fine homecoming, and the enemies on the field were so earnest in their efforts to take home that other dollar that they were bothered nary a bit by the hundreds of spectators in the stands or the constant roar of airplanes low overhead. (Some of the boys did complain about sunburned tonsils, though).

The Blue Springs boys caught the homecoming spirit in the first inning when Woods walked and came home on Spurgeon's line double to left. In the next frame a "school-teacher," as the fans called him, found his way home to tie the score. Six other lads that spend their summers in Phelps County came home during the afternoon, while only five other Blue Springs battlers could do as well and the game ended 7 to 6 in favor of the Summer Session.

The game play-by-play:

1st Inning; R. S. S. Towse fanned. Trautwein popped to Grayson. Allen was out, Liebrum to Uhlemeyer. No hit, no runs, no errors.

Blue Springs — Woods walked. Scheidemantel made a nice stop of Grayson's smash and threw him out, Woods going to second. Liebrum popped to Scheidemantel at second. Spurgeon lashed a double to right field, scoring Woods. Licklider whiffed. ONE HIT, ONE RUN, NO ERRORS.

2nd Inning, R. S. S. — Hendrix tripled to center. Scott hit to Woods and was tossed out at first. Nixon doubled to left, scoring Hendrix. Mooney singled to right, and Nixon followed the path to third. Mooney was out stealing. Grayson to Woods. Bunge watched three strikes ride by. TWO HITS, ONE RUN, NO ERRORS.

Blue Springs — Uhlemeyer was out, Nixon to Trautwein. Stuck rolled to Nixon and was out at first. R. Breuer struck out. No hits, no runs, no errors.

left. Trautwein was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases. Breuer was taken out and Sietz went in to pitch for Blue Springs. Allen struck out. Hendrix singled to left, scoring

Demonstration Given by Mrs. E. Lightfoot

A demonstration of first grade reading was given by Mrs. Lightfoot Monday afternoon. Some pupils could not read at the beginning of the Summer Session. Mrs. Lightfoot has developed several very good readers. There were nine different types of reading done in this demonstration. The most common deficiency, which was word reading, has been practically eliminated.

All visitors' comments on the lesson were very favorable and indicate that this was one of the best lessons seen this summer.

No, It Doesn't Look Like Rain

An English traveler in the wastes of Arabia was in a great hurry to reach Damascus. Believing that his two camel drivers were men of normal intelligence, he offered, as an incentive to speed, a prize of twenty pounds to the driver who should be the last to reach Damascus.

At the end of the first day following, the group had covered but a scant half-mile, and the traveler saw he had greatly over-estimated the intelligence of his drivers. He saw that to change the terms of his offer would only confuse such feeble intellects. He was obliged therefore to make certain suggestions to them without altering the terms in any way.

The next day he was hard driven to keep up with the two drivers. The suggestions he made will, of course, be entirely obvious, and need not be set forth to this audience.

Miss Louise Johnson
Wed to T. W. Hunt

Announcement was made Wednesday of the marriage of Miss Louise Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Johnson of Rolla, and T. W. Hunt, which took place at Baton Rouge, La., June 22. The ceremony took place at the home of Dr. J. A. Christian, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Baton Rouge. Several of Hunt's friends witnessed the ceremony which was held at 8 o'clock in the evening. The bride wore a white suit of sheer material with a white hat and veil, and wore a corsage of gardenias and valley lilies.

Mrs. Hunt has been a teacher at the Ward School here for several years. She has attended the Summer Session here and received her Bachelor's Degree in Education from the University of Missouri this spring.

Bridge Book Written
by Sullivan Citizen

R. H. Discher, who is a business executive at Sullivan, Mo., during working hours, has written a bridge book which is a worthy contribution to contract literature, especially in the fields of distributional values and hand revaluation.

The book, recently off the press, is called "Contract Bridge, the Rapid, Handy, Direct System," and is an exposition of the author's own bidding system. Taking as his basis the four, three, two, one honor count originated by Milton C. Work, Discher, after research which proves the correctness of his method, has ascertained definite distributional values to be found in long suits, short suits, voids and trump support, to evolve a complete system of bidding which combines with mathematical exactness both honor and distributional trick-taking possibilities.

The book is the latest of a number written by Discher and is published by a firm in Sullivan. Discher is the superintendent of the International Shoe Company's plant there.

Interesting Demonstration Given

On Tuesday of this week Miss Richards gave an interesting demonstration of primary reading. The reading class intends to present a program in which oral reading was one of the development lessons for this presentation. The pupils read silently before reading orally and there was a very fine socialized situation during the discussion of the story.

SIDE LIGHTS ON THE GAME

Some one reported that our best money players were asking their way home after the game.

Everything that went in the general direction of the batter and could be reached by the catcher was a strike; hence, twenty-seven strikeouts in the game. Splendid cooperation of the ump with the pitcher. Batters were swinging at throws from the outfield. We don't know how many balls the ump was seeing. Maybe one of them did go over the plate.

Nixon made a fine play on Grayson's roller in the ninth. His throw had the runner by yards. However, the umpire ruled the ball foul. The boys in the field believed the ball was fair and the umpiring foul.

The game was played on the three-two basis. Three dollars for the winner and two for the loser. Any way you take it, the winners earned three dollars that stayed in Cuba after the game.

A couple of Cuba Stars were inserted into the Blue Springs lineup at strategic moments, but to no avail. The teachers will have their annual victory at the annual homecoming.

Giebler's drive in the sixth was a typical Giebler wallop. It rolled lazily to the pitcher and should have been an easy out if the infielders could have agreed which one should pick it up.

All in all the teachers enjoyed the afternoon. We all got to see many, many Crawford County people we'd never seen before.

Entries Large for Missouri State Fair

Shorthorn cattle are leading the early entries for exhibition in the Beef Cattle Department at the Missouri State Fair, August 11 to 18, Secretary Charles W. Green announced.

The first beef entry received was for thirteen prize Shorthorns, to be shown by Thomson Brothers, Wakarusa, Kansas. Robert L. Stewart, of Lexington, Mo., has entered four Shorthorns, and C. M. Caraway & Sons, DeLeon, Texas, have entered twelve of the same breed. The Genoa Ranch, Genoa, Tex., is also expected to bring 12 or fifteen Shorthorns to the 34th Missouri State Fair, since they have requested extra entry blanks.

Thirteen Aberdeen-Angus cattle will be brought by Elliott Brown, of Rose Hill, Iowa.

Secretary Green said an unusual number of inquiries is being received from widely separated breeders of thoroughbred beef cattle in all classes, many of them asking for extra blanks and expressing their intention of opening their respective show circuits this year at the Missouri State Fair.

Numbers Demonstration Given

Thursday afternoon of last week Miss Niehoff gave a demonstration lesson in primary numbers. The lesson period was used chiefly in teaching combinations. Addition and subtraction facts were taught together in various types of attack. The lesson motivator was a cafeteria which the children will use to apply the facts learned.

Art Exhibit Given Last Week

Miss Moore's classes in Introduction to Art and Artcraft had an interesting and worthwhile exhibit last week. This exhibit consisted of work done by the students in those classes this summer and proves that Miss Moore knows how to make full blown blossoms of budding artists and craftsmen.

Government Class Hears W.E. Barton

W. E. Barton of Houston, former judge of the circuit court, 19th judicial circuit, and former member of Congress, lectured to Mr. Minnis' American Government class last Monday about the background of American law and government.

This talk was highly instructive and beneficial to the class since it was relative to the subject-matter which the class has been studying and at the same time brought to light many interesting facts not dealt with in ordinary textbooks.

Judge Barton is a graduate of the law department of Missouri University. He represented the old Sixteenth District in Congress for one term. On behalf of the Government class, we thank the Judge for his lecture.

Mr. Leaver Guest at Dinner Sunday

The class in Diagnostic Testing and Remedial Teaching put their teacher to a test for sociability and appreciation by inviting him to dinner Sunday, July 29, at the Bell Hotel at Waynesville.

The invitation included the class roll, Cook, Richards, Cunio and Bradford—making a case study of pupil Dr. Comprehension Rate Leaver.

Items of case study:

1. Standard of Achievement—To appreciate the class for taking him to dinner.
2. Interests and habits—Dancing, a pipe, feet on table, pretty teachers, cards, fishing, and staying up all night. Instruction to class—"If you haven't tried these, try them some time."
3. Physical traits—Tall, handsome, young for his age, immaculately dressed, lives more in one week than most people do in a year.
4. Weaknesses—Plans to give final, fails to appear at laboratory periods when temperature is 110.

Guests besides Mr. Leaver were Norm Lightfoot, Median Huvendick, Percentile Zewicki, Mean Bradford and Range Underwood.

Miss Burns' Class Sponsor of Exhibit

A most interesting exhibit done by Miss Burns' classes was displayed Tuesday in Room 101. The work was an outgrowth of class discussion and readings. Owing to the wide range of grades taught by the students of these classes, the majority of the material was made to take care of their individual differences and to have a direct bearing on their work for their coming school year. This exhibit has been the most useful and the most extensive one thus far displayed by any group of students of the Education classes.

Many new ideas and suggestions for booklets, in-between-recitation seatwork, check work, model bulletin boards, and progress charts were displayed for every subject taught from the first to the eighth grades of the elementary school.

Miss Burns expressed her sincere appreciation for the work done this summer by her students. She said her greatest difficulty was trying to keep the teachers from working too hard but each one had so many ideas to work out that it was exceedingly hard to limit the amount that each student contributed.

Lecture on Organ Heard by Students

Almost everyone appreciates pipe organ music; but very few understand the mechanism of the instrument. To explain the more intricate parts of the organ was Dr. Woodman's purpose in his lecture at the Methodist Church Tuesday evening.

Dr. Woodman introduced his subject by showing stereopticon slides of various large organs, explaining how they are designed according to the architecture of the building. He then showed pictures of the various parts of the organ and explained their functions.

In concluding, Dr. Woodman took his "pupils" behind the console and let them see what actually happens while the organ is played. During this demonstration Miss Margaret Mann played several beautiful solos. The group then went to the Episcopal Church where Mrs. T. R. Schweer demonstrated the unit type organ.

Among those in the audience were Mrs. Tello's Music Appreciation class who have had the opportunity of hearing a number of demonstrations on instruments this summer. Doubtless all those who attended Dr. Woodman's lecture on the physics of the pipe organ will have a greater interest in and appreciation for organ music.

Mrs. Tello Honored at Surprise Dinner

The Triple Trio girls entertained Mrs. Tello Wednesday evening, Aug. 1, at a surprise dinner at the Ozark Tavern on Highway 66.

The guest of honor was further surprised when the girls presented her with a flashlight and an appropriate poem expressing the appreciation of the group for her patience throughout the summer.

Demonstration Given by Bunge on Tuesday

On Tuesday, Bill Bunge gave a demonstration lesson in the fifth grade. This lesson is a continuation of a travel project which is being developed by the language class in the fifth and sixth grades, and was centered around a desire on the part of the class to write original poems for their big booklet on travel.

The poems were taught by the whole method and several types of attack were used in the lesson. Besides original poetry, creative art is also growing out of this unit of work.

KICKING UP DUST

We've heard that a "punch" was given for the faculty.

Oooh! A wolf makin' sheep's eyes tried to lure Red Riding Hood Pemberton away from Wood-cutter Lemons. Dr. Cramer to the rescue.

The exhibits by Miss Burns' classes were no kiddin' hot.

The big kick came after the game last Saturday.

Ed Ray is quite a man. Ask Hendricks.

Have you heard that Pauline Grant made an "E" on a Government quiz?

The Demon Dozen have some of their freshmen sleepin' on their backs, just as some of the Demons are.

Prof. Leaver is now asking his questions five at a time.

Some of the girls on the Triangle treasure hunt found an unplanned clew—a burning car—and turned in the alarm.

The wife and baby who were at Baccalaureate services do NOT belong to Gene Souder. For particulars, consult Willa Laws.

Bayless, Weber and Bunge have used a grip on the flying trapeze that only love can explain.

All cracks about the staff will be printed in next week's Ozarker.

In these here colyum cracks of ours We haven't thrown so many flowers.

We've printed goofy things that you did And kept our own moronics hid.

Now you may think that we've been catty.

We know darn' well you've acted batty. This kickin' dust was all in fun; Printin' the best is the worst we've done.

Song Featured at Banquet Published

The Ozarker has been requested a number of times to publish the song the Triple Trio used "to open the show" at the Forum banquet last week. Try it to the tune of "The Mulberry Bush."

Says Burnsie to Doc Barley-o,
 "Doc Cramer Lloyd to me and so
 On him I'm bound to Tello

This lovely summer evening."

Now to Miss Burns said Barley-o,
 "I do not care A-dams-io!

What more could you expect-io
 On a lovely summer evening?"

"Your tongue is much too Lewis," said she,

"Just Sease this crude frivolity;
 Don't be so Bouldin Sharp with me
 This lovely summer evening!"

And then along came Doc McNeil.
 "Huitt-mon!" said he, "How do you feel?"

"The Woodman's ax I'm going to wield,"

Said Burnsie, "in the morning."

"Before such doings you bestir
 You'd better get the Minnis-ter."
 "Mi-lar! I'll be a spinister
 For many a summer evening!"

"So get thee Hirsch from me," cried she.

"She's Wright," he said, "I'll Leaver be."

Den-ny went out John's-son to see
 On a lovely summer evening.

"I feel so B(r)adly," Burnsie said,
 "I'm going to the Garrett to soak my head."

Alas, I think I'm almost dead
 This beastly summer evening."

I Donahoe's to blame, my dears,
 We'd best be getting away from here.

"Go out and see if the way is clear
 This lovely summer evening."

"Ah, yes, the Cloyd has passed away."

"We need not Schrenk from what they'll say,

 Because they work us anyway
 These lovely summer evenings."

Now maybe this is only a "Cagg,"
 The faculty is really not so bad;

In fact, they're the best we've ever had

For many a summer evening.

Music Department Gives Fine Program

Several visitors enjoyed the Convocation program with us last Thursday morning, when the Music Department displayed talents and accomplishments. The orchestra, seated on the stage, opened the program with a lovely waltz and a lively overture. Following that the audience was held enrapt by the beautiful tones and skillful playing of Miss Mary Alice Stephenson on the cello.

The Triple Trio sang rejoices for more than the student body when they reminded us to "listen to the patter of the rain," and left the Girls' Quartet on the stage to blend their voices on "Allah's Holiday."

The next number proved to be a very pleasant surprise to many who did not know Miss Flora Ellen Hill. She sang "Song of Songs" and was enthusiastically received. This is her first term at Rolla Summer Session and we are glad Mrs. Tello "found" her early in the term. Miss Hill formerly studied at Central College, Fayette.

We always enjoy watching that quintet while we listen to their manly voices in harmony. Sutterfield's giggles and Sam's grin get the audience in the proper state of mind to forgive Bill for not "looking us in the eye." If it hadn't been for the two experienced stage artists, Wilson and Webber, who kept the melody going, despite interruptions, Bill would have gone "way down" below that stage.

Last came the chorus songs. There was a variety of Negro, Scotch, Italian, French, and American folk songs in two and three parts. Mrs.

Tello and all the participants deserve much credit for devoting hours and hours of hot afternoons and evenings to practice and for their numerous creditable performances. These music groups always have a large part in the summer's entertainment.

Kirchoff Is Having Successful Season

Elmer Kirchoff, known to professional baseball as "Al Phillips," who formerly starred on the Rolla Baseball Club and the M. S. M. football team, has been doing a great job in the infield for the Lincoln, Neb., team of the Nebraska State Baseball League. He hit homers on two successive days during the past week.

Kirchoff's work is not going unnoticed, as is evidenced by the following article which appeared in this week's issue of the "Sporting News," the national baseball weekly: "Charley Barrett, St. Louis Cardinal scout, likes the looks of several Lincoln players, Pitcher Nelson Potter, Second Baseman Genzlinger, and Third Baseman Al Phillips (Kirchoff) have caught his eye. The Cards have the pick of the league, permitting Barrett to select any two players from each club."

Kirch played short for the R.S.S. baseball team during the summer of 1932 and was a tower of strength at the plate and in the field. His former teammates wish him luck.

Allen Wins at Tennis

The finals in the men's tennis tournament were played off Tuesday in a match between Jack Allen and Leslie Ware. Ware advanced to the finals through a victory over Grubb and a forfeit by Bunge. Allen had defeated Trautwein and came to the finals when Achurch defaulted because of a sprained ankle. Allen defeated Ware 6-1 and 6-0 and now has the crown to be shot at next summer.

Demonstration Given by Miss Ruth Boyd

Last Wednesday afternoon Miss Ruth Boyd and her class in American Literature presented a class in composition and punctuation. On the blackboard Miss Boyd had written an incorrectly punctuated paragraph and gave the reason for using each mark of punctuation. This was the first demonstration of its kind that had been given this summer. It was greatly enjoyed by the visitors.

R. S. S. Pictures to Appear in Papers

Watch the St. Louis papers for pictures from the Summer Session because Mr. Hubbard has photographed several groups since the student picture was taken a few weeks ago by Mr. Baumgardner.

Last week the Women's Chorus, the Triple Trio, and the Men's Quintet posed for the camera on the stage in Parker. Several active picknickers were "caught" last Thursday at Cool Brook Swimming Pool.

The seniors donned their dignifying attire and met on the front steps of Parker Hall while Mr. Hubbard took their picture. He was assisted by Lucille Lofton who played the part of the "little birdie."

The picnic was a grand success in every way, and we wish to express our appreciation to Dr. Barley and his committee for giving us such a splendid outing.
